MEMORIAL

Ohio Geological Society member George Stocker died of cancer in Newark, Ohio on January 5, 1984. He was born in Dennison, Ohio in 1924 and received a BA Degree in Geology from Wooster College, and a MS in Geology from Kansas University where he also taught.

His work experiences included Northwest Geological Service in North Dakota, American Metal Climax in New York City, and Edmund Oil and Gas Company in Barrington, New Jersey. In 1962 he joined Guy Sitler and formed Stocker and Sitler, Inc. which has drilled in excess of 1,000 wells, mostly in Ohio. George retired as president of Stocker and Sitler in 1982 and formed Trinity Oil, Ltd. in order to lease and explore for oil and gas in Northwestern Ohio.

George will be missed by all who knew him.

OHIO GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY
CONSTITUTION

Article I. NAME
The name of this society is the "Ohio Geological Society."

Article II. OBJECTS
The objects of this society shall be:

1. To increase the knowledge of its members in the science of geology and related fields.

2. To maintain and improve standards of business ethics and professional integrity.

3. To promote acquaintance and friendship among geologists.

Article III. MEMBERSHIP
Section 1.
The members of this society shall be Active Members, Honorary Life Members, and Associates.

a. Active members shall be geologists and persons engaged principally in geological work, provided they are graduates of an institution of collegiate standing in which institution they have done their major work in geology;
   and provided further that an applicant for membership who has not had the required collegiate or university training, but whose standing in the profession is well recognized, shall be admitted to membership when his application shall have been unanimously approved by the Executive Board and the Membership Committee.

b. Honorary Life Members shall be those who, by unanimous vote of the Membership Committee and the Executive Board, have made outstanding contributions to the profession, the science of geology, the advancement of the science, or the advancement of the Ohio Geological Society.

c. Associates shall be those persons whose work is related to the petroleum industry or the science of geology, but who do not fulfill the requirements set forth for Active Membership.

d. Student Associates shall be graduate students or senior undergraduates in geology in an educational institution of recognized standing. (Amended April 15, 1968.)

Section 2.
Only Active Members and Honorary Life Members shall have voting privileges and shall be qualified to hold elective office.

Section 3.
Each candidate for admission shall submit an application on a form authorized by the Executive Board, and the application shall be endorsed by two members of the society. The Membership Committee shall act upon such applications.
Where doubt exists as to the suitability of any applicant for membership, the Membership Committee shall consult with the Executive Board, and the final decision shall be made by this Board.

Section 4.
Each member shall be guided by the highest standards of business and professional ethics and conduct. The Code of Ethics of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists shall be used as a model for the standards of this society and its members.
Article IV. OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers shall consist of a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

Section 2. The Nominating Committee shall prepare a slate consisting of two candidates for each office and present it to the membership at the April meeting. The consent of all nominees shall be obtained before they are presented as candidates. Within five days after the April meeting, five or more members of the society may choose a nominee for one or more offices, and submit their nominations in a signed petition to the President. These nominations shall be considered of equal standing with those presented by the Nominating Committee. Not more than ten days after the April meeting the Secretary shall send out mail ballots, which must be returned at a specific date before the May meeting. The Secretary and the chairman of the Nominating Committee shall tabulate the results and certify them to the President, who shall announce the names of the newly elected officers at the May meeting. The candidate for each office who receives the most votes shall be declared elected. The new officers shall assume office at the close of the May meeting.

Section 3.
A vacancy in the office of President shall be filled by the Vice President. In the event of vacancy in any other offices, such vacancies shall be filled by election. A written notice shall be sent to all members at least two weeks prior to such election.

Section 4.
1. Duties of the President: The President shall be the presiding officer at all meetings of the society. He shall take cognizance of the acts of the society, of its officers and staff. He shall appoint, within the limitations prescribed in the Constitution, such committees as required for the purposes of the society and shall delegate members to represent the society. He shall serve as chairman of the Executive Board. He shall not vote except to break a tie.

2. Duties of the Vice President: The Vice President, in the absence of the President, shall preside at the meetings of the society and Executive Board. He shall act as chairman of the Program Committee.

3. Duties of the Secretary: The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all business meetings of the society and of the Executive Board. He shall maintain an up-to-date membership record. He shall attend to all ordinary correspondence of the society, and be responsible for informing the membership of society activities.

4. Duties of the Treasurer: The Treasurer shall handle and be responsible for all incoming and outgoing monies of the society. He shall sign all checks or vouchers for monies disbursed. He shall pay out no monies whatever until duly authorized by the society, or the Executive Board. He shall receive all monies from dues, assessments, and all other sources whatever and shall keep accurate and complete records thereof. He shall present a written financial statement to the Executive Board whenever so requested by the Board. He shall be chairman of the Finance Committee.

Article V. STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 1. EXECUTIVE BOARD
The Executive Board shall consist of the officers of the Society, and the past President. The Board shall meet on call of the President and shall be responsible for all normal business and policy of the society.

Section 2. PROGRAM COMMITTEE
The Program Committees shall be responsible for all technical programs and social activities of the society at its regular meetings and at special meetings unless a special committee is formed for the latter function.

Section 3. MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE
This committee shall have the duty of processing and acting on all applications for membership and for recommending candidates for Honorary Life Membership. It shall also be the duty of this committee to prepare the Membership Directory.

Section 4. NOMINATING COMMITTEE
This committee shall be appointed by the Executive Board and be responsible for submitting a minimum of two candidates for each office to the members present at the annual April meeting.

Section 5. SPECIAL COMMITTEES
Special committees may be appointed by the President from time to time for such periods as he deems necessary.

Article VI. MEETINGS
This society shall hold regular and special meetings as determined by the membership.

Article VII. AMENDMENTS
This Constitution may be amended by a three fourths vote of the members present at the meeting in which the amendment is to be voted upon, provided that all members shall be notified of any proposed amendments at least two weeks prior to said meeting.
